Box IV TEXT OF THE ABSTRACT (Continuation of Item 5 of the first sheet)

By modeling real-world application objects with complex structures, behaviors and operations described by a schema which is enforced by the hardware/software interface system, various embodiments of the present invention provide rich sub-typing functionality (3602, 3604, 3606, 3622, 3624, 3626, 3642, 3644) by extending items using extensions which provide additional data structure to already existing items type structures. Extensions are strongly typed instances that cannot exist independently and must be attached to an item or a Nested element. Extensions are also intended to address multi-typing issues by enabling the overlap of type instances.

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE
INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.

PCT/US04/24569

Box No. I Basis of this opinion

1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.

☐ This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language _____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).

2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:

a. type of material

☐ a sequence listing

☐ table(s) related to the sequence listing

b. format of material

☐ in written format

☐ in computer readable form

c. time of filing/furnishing

☐ contained in international application as filed.

☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.

☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.

3. ☐ In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

4. Additional comments:

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE
INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.

PCT/US04/24569

Box No. II Priority

1. ☒ The following document has not yet been furnished:
- ☐ .copy of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rules 43*bis*.1 and 66.7(a)).
- ☒ translation of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rules 43*bis*.1 and 66.7(b)).
- Consequently it has not been possible to consider the validity of the priority claim. This opinion has nevertheless been established on the assumption that the relevant date is the claimed priority date.
2. ☐ This opinion has been established as if no priority has been claimed due to the fact that the priority claim has been found invalid (Rules 43*bis*.1 and 64.1). Thus for the purposes of this opinion, the international filing date indicated above is considered to be the relevant date.
3. Additional observations, if necessary:
- In the event a copy of the non-US filed priority document is not furnished to this authority because the applicant fails to comply with PCT Rule 17.1 or the document is not available to this Authority from a digital library, the applicant is invited to provide this Authority with a copy of said document. The applicant is also invited to provide a translation of said document into English (if the document is not in English) within two months from the date of mailing of this written opinion. If this Authority is not provided with a copy of said non-US filed priority document and the applicant fails to comply with PCT Rule 17.1 and the priority document is not available to this Authority from a digital library and/or an English translation of said document, if it is not in English, is not provided to this Authority within the time period set forth above or by the time this Authority begins to draw up any written opinion (WO) of the International Preliminary Examining Authority (IPEA) or the International Preliminary Report on Patentability (IPRP) of the IPEA, any said WO or IPRP of the IPEA may be established as if the priority had not been claimed.

INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.
PCT/US04/24569

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-42	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims NONE	YES
	Claims 1-42	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-42	YES
	Claims NONE	NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-42 lack of an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over Agrawal et al., US Patent no. 6,763,350 in view of Li et al., US Patent no. 6,697,818.

As to claims 1-42:

Claims 1-42 are directed for a system for modeling real world application objects by extending items using extension, which provides additional data structures to the existing items, type structures, which were neither described nor enabled in the priority application. Therefore, claims 1-42 are being examined in light of the international file date. Agrawal, however, discloses substantially the invention as claimed, including the use of extending an item and an extension to extend the item (col.1, lines 15-col.11, line 48). On the other hand, Li discloses an analogous system that constitutes a discrete storable unit of information that can be manipulated by said hardware/software interface system (col.7, line 30-col.15, line 22). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to combine the teachings of the cited references where the query module provided therein (see Agrawal's fig. 1, item 20) to incorporate the use of constituting a discrete storable unit of information that can be manipulated by said hardware/software interface system in order to provide a better performance query than is otherwise possible with conventional extenders due to a better understanding on the part of the universal extension module of a data model of underlying data types.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220

These Notes are intended to give the basic instructions concerning the filing of amendments under Article 19. The Notes are based on the requirements of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations and the Administrative Instructions under that Treaty. In case of discrepancy between these Notes and those requirements, the latter are applicable. For more detailed information, see also the PCT Applicant's Guide, a publication of WIPO.

In these Notes, "Article," "Rule" and "Section" refer to the provisions of the PCT, the PCT Regulations and the PCT Administrative Instructions, respectively.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING AMENDMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 19

The applicant has, after having received the international search report, one opportunity to amend the claims of the international application. It should however be emphasized that, since all parts of the international application (claims, description and drawings) may be amended during the international preliminary examination procedure, there is usually no need to file amendments of the claims under Article 19 except where, e.g. the applicant wants the latter to be published for the purposes of provisional protection or has another reason for amending the claims before international publication. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that provisional protection is available in some States only.

What parts of the international application may be amended ?

Under Article 19, only the claims may be amended.

During the international phase, the claims may also be amended (or further amended) under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority. The description and drawings may only be amended under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority.

Upon entry into the national phase, all parts of the international application may be amended under Article 28 or, where applicable, Article 41.

When ? Within 2 months from the date of transmittal of the international search report or 16 months from the priority date, whichever time limit expires later. It should be noted, however, that the amendments will be considered as having been received on time if they are received by the International Bureau after the expiration of the applicable time limit but before the completion of the technical preparations for international publication (Rule 46.1).

Where not to file the amendments ?

The amendments may only be filed with the International Bureau and not with the receiving Office or the International Searching Authority (Rule 46.2).

Where a demand for international preliminary examination has been/is filed, see below.

How ? Either by cancelling one or more entire claims, by adding one or more new claims or by amending the text of one or more of the claims as filed.

A replacement sheet must be submitted for each sheet of the claims which, on account of an amendment or amendments, differs from the sheet originally filed.

All the claims appearing on a replacement sheet must be numbered in Arabic numerals. Where a claim is cancelled, no renumbering of the other claims is required. In all cases where claims are renumbered, they must be renumbered consecutively (Administrative Instructions, Section 205(b)).

The amendments must be made in the language in which the international application is to be published.

What documents must/may accompany the amendments ?

Letter (Section 205(b)):

The amendments must be submitted with a letter.

The letter will not be published with the international application and the amended claims. It should not be confused with the "Statement under Article 19(1)" (see below, under "Statement under Article 19(1)").

The letter must be in English or French, at the choice of the applicant. However, if the language of the international application is English, the letter must be in English; if the language of the international application is French, the letter must be in French.
